Cherry Collection

by Charles Barr

TRAFALGAR: A collection of furniture inspired by British nautical history. Rich Cherry fruitwood timbers matched with contrasting decorative flame mahogany veneers enhanced by galleon theme styling, tempered with sophisticated 18th and early 19th century English influences. Whatever your personal preference our Trafalgar collection will remain an enduring and unchanging source of pleasure which will be as little affected by passing fashions as it is by the passing of time, that is one of its most reassuring and practical virtues, Trafalgar by Charles Barr.

Height without pediment 191cm (75")

A dining table that would grace any ships salon, its heavy bulbous column mounted on a four pointed scalloped base provides a firm dining surface that is not normally found on circular single pedestal dining tables.

Quite often a corner space within a room will remain unused, our open front double door corner cabinet makes the best use of this space. Two adjustable shelves in the open top carcass of this cabinet and an optional touch dimmer lighting system provide a useful corner space to show your favourite objet d'art.
